

Job Description

Recruitment Consultant

Want to Step Up to something new and exciting? We are about connecting great people to great opportunities. Be part of this passionate team, producing bespoke solutions for our clients. We are a team living what we do, being successful in work and at home with our families. We have a firm foot print in the retail and sourcing sector and always looking for new opportunities.

Responsibilities:

- Creating new business streams as well as developing existing client relationships.
- Managing the entire recruitment cycle with the goal of connecting great people to great opportunities.
- Offering advice and coaching for our clients and candidates on managing their careers and the careers of their team.
- Deliver on performance targets.

Requirements:

- Passionate about people, and have great engagement skills.
- Innovative in delivering customised people solutions.
- Can deliver time and time again.

If this sounds like you, then get in touch with us today at stepup@stepupcareers.com