

JOB DESCRIPTION

Senior Manager / Manager (FP&A)

Ref. J027R/WW/C0035/2019

- Involving in long term strategic planning
- Board business exposure
- Path to Finance Director

Our client is a regional conglomerate with an award winning and growing automotive, supply chain and retail businesses. As business continues to evolve, the leadership has targeted and wishes to take the group to the next level.

If you are wanting to be a business partner, this role will be suitable for your consideration. You will be in charge of business forecasting. Having a critical eye on the company's finances, spotting data anomalies, trends, or deviations, and introduces strategies for long term business growth and improvement.

The key of your role will be looking after the overall planning and analysis for a group of business units, which including annual budgeting and finance forecasting of the business performance. You will develop and maintain key financial performance metrics and tracking system Conduct regular business review with brands and business partners in terms of performance analysis

The exciting part of the role is to be a Partner with business leaders to provide business insights and support business growth through data analysis, as well as delivering value adding Finance Partnering support in deal feasibility studies and M&A projects.

Joining the team, you must be a University graduate or above in Accountancy and a qualified Accountant under HKICPA/ ACCA or equivalent.

Minimum 5 years financial accounting experience in sizable and complex organization is required. In person, you should have ability to simplify esoteric financial information to benefit the company leadership and strong sense of responsibilities who works independently.

Proficient in written and spoken English, Chinese and Putonghua. Knowledge in Oracle Financial System and System Implementation is an advantage.

Immediately available is highly preferred.