

JOB DESCRIPTION

Job No. J040/WW/C0093/2018

Senior Accountant

- Global industrial products
- Independent regional position
- Flexible work environment

Our client, is a leading manufacturer for industrial products, headquartered in Europe. The Group produces a wide variety of standard industrial products. They will also design customized products to meet their customer requirements.

Due to continuous business growth over the past years, the group is looking to hire a Senior Accountant who will handle the day to day accounting activities and provide finance reporting to the management teams in Asia.

A typical day of your role will be responsible the company's accounting entries and monthly reports (general ledger, AR, AP, invoicing, banks' statement.) You will liaise with the Regional CFO to prepare consolidated accounts and audits.

Joining an exciting and compact growing structure, you should be hands-on, and independent with good proficiency in English and Mandarin. Experience working in manufacturing industry would be highly advantageous.

You should also be a University graduate with major in Accounting, Finance or relevant disciplines, and a Holder of HKICPA / ACCA or equivalent. Finalist will also be considered. Knowledge about Dynamics Navision is preferred.