

Job Description

Trainer (Part Time)

- Boutique and bespoke products.
- Out of the box thinking and delivery.
- Passionately sharing your recipe for success.

Step Up HK, the boutique human capital partner for small and large corporates is growing its training solutions business. You will be a seasoned and passionate trainer. You want to share the very recipe which made you successful, with the participants. You will have a business and customer focused head.

You enjoy finding and meeting the clients, to tease out what they need to move the organisation forwards and upwards. You will develop and design the solution, pulling in knowledge to meet the exacting client requirements. Learning is about self-reflection, and you will be quick to listen to feedback, and make changes.

Be part of a small team, agile, flexible and fun, and moving amongst the big and small corporates in Hong Kong and the region.

Step Up for the recipe to success.
